

iCOMOS 2018

Certificate of Completion

3rd International Conference on One Medicine One Science

"Science and Policy at the Interface of Environment, Agriculture and Medicine"

April 29 – May 2, 2018

Graduate Minneapolis Hotel

Minneapolis, MN

This activity offers up to 21.15 Minnesota Board of Nursing continuing education hours

I attended all conference sessions: Sunday, April 29 - Tuesday, May 2, 2018 for 14.9 CE hours

I only attended the following single sessions (Please check the session you did attend):

Sunday, April 29, 2018

Opening Session - Laureate Panel Discussion (1.9 CE hours)

Monday, April 30, 2018

Plenary Presentation - Opening Doors Worldwide through Medical Science (0.75 CE hours)

Session 1: Social and Economic Impacts on Health (2.5 CE hours)

Session 2: Infectious Disease and Environmental Disturbance (1.5 CE hours)

Featured Presentation - The Killer Defense (0.75 CE hours)

Tuesday, May 1, 2018

Session 3: Agriculture Advancing Health (3.0 CE hours)

Featured Presentation - Space, environment and health (1.0 CE hours)

Session 4: New Paradigms at the Environment-Health Interface (3.0 CE hours)

Wednesday, May 2, 2018

Plenary Presentation (0.5 CE hours)

I attended one of the following workshops on Wednesday, May 2, 2018. (Check the session attended)

CIS 1: One Medicine One Science Approaches to Health at Two NIH Institutes (6.0 CE hours)

CIS 2: Effective Policy when Consumer Preferences (Food and Health) Do Not Match Actions (6.25 CE hours)

CIS 3: Breaking Silos and Building Bridges Within and Across Geographies for One Medicine One Science Policy (5.25 CE hours)

CIS 4: Precision Medicine and Genome Editing: Science and Ethics (5.6 CE hours)

CIS 5: Science Communication and Strategic Engagement of Policy Makers (6.0 CE hours)

Participant's Name:

Participant's Signature:

CE Hours Attended:

(Conference & Workshop Hours)

This activity has been designed to meet the Minnesota Board of Nursing continuing education requirements. However, the nurse is responsible for determining whether this activity meets the requirements for acceptable continuing education.

Offered by College of Veterinary Medicine - University of Minnesota